Plant Mineral Nutrition: The Yin and Yang of Food Safety

The mineral content of food plants is crucial for human health. The ability of plants to absorb minerals from the soil and accumulate them in edible organs is of importance for a balanced diet, as too much or too little can impact human health. However, there is still a long way to go before we fully understand the genetic basis of mineral homeostasis in plants.

The presentation is followed by an aperitif and - for a limited number of students - by a dinner with the speaker. For the dinner, contact ilaria.orlando@uzh.ch not later than January 23, 2018 by explaining why you would like to meet the speaker.

Organization

The event series Vision 2020 is organized by a committee of PhD students of the PhD Program in Integrative Molecular Medicine (imMed):
Institute of Physiology UZH: Marek Whitehead (chair) | Emilia Boiadjieva | Tobias Hasler | Amalia Ruiz Serrano | Iliaria Orlando
Institute of Veterinary Physiology UZH: Fabienne Villars
Institute of Physiology UZH: Darya Protsyuk | Elisabetta Biglieri from the PhD Program Cancer Biology
Institute of Molecular Life Sciences UZH: Dezirae Beck
Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences ETH: Evelin Krajnc, from the PhD Program Molecular and Translational Biomedicine
URPP Global Change and Biodiversity: Maria Parreño
Supported by the SUK Program "Doktoratsprogramme".
